HA! One edit would be to correct the title to read “Jurisdictional Determination of Cargill Site at Redwood City, California” or something. At least you know I’m definitely using Greg’s format!

Hi John and Russ:

Using Greg’s format and level of detail, I’ve developed this general Cargill fact sheet. As you’ll see (consistent with Chris’ request) it doesn’t go into a lot of detail. Any early thoughts?

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

Thanks for the edits on the deep ripping paper, Greg. We'll reframe a more general one on Cargill along those lines for the hearing package.

Thanks

Sounds good. As I go ahead and “accept” the edits, should I send the result forward to the cc’s on this email now or just add them to the package of Fact Sheets being prepared for the Administrator by Friday? Or, I suppose, both?

Yours in Fact Sheet Heaven,

Donna

I hope I made that point clearly in the TPs section because I agree its important. If you want to reinforce that point in the background section – please add a bullet – thanks Donna.

Thanks John – I’ve tried to focus and tighten this recognizing Gina won’t want to engage in a detailed factual debate. Are you OK with the edits?

Best,

Look for a draft Cargill write-up shortly. Likewise on this one we will need to reformat/reframe for the hearing, given the differing purposes.

Thanks

My sense is most of the information on the second issue is included in Donna's email? I'm expecting the issue is going to come up in several contexts – including Gina's ag hearing.

Could you prepare two one pagers on the following issues – nothing too elaborate:

1. Cargill –

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

Redacted - Non-responsive

Could I get both by tomorrow?

Call me if you want to discuss.
